TO HONOR ST. PATRICK*The Order of Hibernians Have Most Successful Celebration.

It is probable that Progress Hall never held so large a crowd as was gathered there last night to celebrate St. Patrick's day. They were the Ladies' Auxiliary and Division No. 1, A. O. H. of A., and their guests, and in the audience there was the youth and beauty and distinction of Honolulu.

The committees having the affair in charge had made the most complete arrangements for the comfort and enjoyment of their guests, and the hall was beautifully decorated in green and the national colors, the stage draped with the American and Hawaiian, and the Irish flag. The program was long, but not too long, and was excellently arranged so that there were no waits. It opened with an overture, "Ireland Forever," especially arranged by Prof. A. Marques and beautifully given by the Marquis Septette, J. C. Fritas, Miss Nellie McGreavy, Joseph Rosen, Prof. Marques, Miss Vera L. Herbert and C. S. Desky.

Following this, President M. J. Carroll of the Hibernians delivered a short address of welcome, and James D. Dougherty gave a tenor solo, responding to an enthusiastic encore. Misses A. Dowling and M. A. Doherty rendered a piano duet, "America Forever," and A. E. Murphy was most dramatic in the recitation, "A dream of the future."

Mrs. C. B. Cooper sang a beautiful soprano solo, "Secret," her sweet, clear voice filling the hall, and she also smilingly responded to an enthusiastic encore.

Henry Hogan was introduced as the orator of the evening, and delivered an address filled with all the pathos and fervor, and hope of the Irish race. Indeed, an Irish patriotic address is always filled with pathos and fervor and hope. Mr. Hogan's talk was well received by the audience, and at the conclusion he begged pardon if he had been a thought too long because he had been carried away by his enthusiasm as an Irishman. And his audience cheered him again at that.

The boys of St. Louis College choir, with three little bright faced lads for leaders who sang and looked, too, like angels, sang the glee, (a) "Springtime Roses," and (b) "The Dear Little Shamrock," and then would not respond to an encore, although they were wanted again because the crowd could have listened to that kind of music all night.

Miss Helen McCarthy recited the "Lament of the Irish Emigrant," a touching bit of sentiment touching given, and Mr. J. H. Howland sang "Gipsy John," and gave an encore the "Wives of St. Ives," a bit of bass comedy in verse that was well received. Little Walter Gough, one of the St. Louis College lads, played a violin solo, "Chaconne," in a way that reflected credit upon his teacher, and showed him to be possessed of a skill very rare in so young a boy. Father Valentin, in a strong and true baritone voice sang Moore's "Believe me if all those endearing young charms," and after a short talk by Right Rev. Bishop Libert, the Marquis Septette ended the entertainment with two well chosen numbers. The accompanist of the evening was A. R. Cunha.

The affair was in charge of the following committees:

Committee on Arrangements—Mrs. M. J. Carroll, Chairman; Mrs. L. K. Kake, A. E. Murphy, Miss M. Alice Dougherty, W. F. Erving, F. D. Creedon, Miss Lillie Murray, H. F. Davidson. Committee on Reception—Mrs. J. Duggan, James T. Carey, Miss Florence Dillon, James Dodd, Miss Alice Ziegler, Owen McCaffrey.

Committee on Decoration—Mrs. C. W. Ziegler, Thomas D. White, Mrs. J. W. Short, John Sheehan, Mrs. McGreavy, J. McGuire.

RESEARCH CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEETING

The Young Men's Research Club was entertained last evening at the offices of the United States Weather Bureau in the Young Building by Mr. A. McC. Ashley, the director of the Hawaiian Section, who made an address on the work of the weather bureau, afterwards giving an interesting description of the instruments in use here.

Following the address the Club went into a business session and discussed the Dickey bill for Tantalus, Punchbowl and Waikiki parks. Senator Dickey explained that for the Tantalus Park, the Young Men's Research Club had originally recommended about seventy-seven acres to be set aside. This was the area described in Senator Dickey's bill. He stated, however, that Mr. Giffard had wished the park to extend down to his property on Tantalus, which would make the entire area about 177 acres. This, he thought was enough to secure the whole legislative off.

The Research Club took a vote on the matter, passed a resolution favoring the Dickey area, and appointed the following committee to look after its interests: R. S. Hosmer, chairman; L. A. Thurston and Prof. Giffards.
